
Restoration & Management Notes

Volume 11 Number 1 Summer 1993

C O N T E N T S

Editorial

- The Ghosts in the Forest3
William R. Jordan III

Articles

- Restoring Oak Ecosystems—A Response to Mendelson et al.5
Steve Packard
- Landscape-scale Restoration: From Patching to Mending
- I. The Wildlands Project18
David M. Johns
 - II. A Plan for the Northern Appalachians20
Jamie Sayen
 - III. SWAN: A Coalition for Wilderness Restoration in the Upper Great Lakes Bioregion23
Bill Willers
- Seitaien: Creating a Collection of Restored Ecosystems in Chiba, Japan25
Toshihiko Nakamura and Teruyo Oba
- Tamarisk Control
- I. Fighting Back31
Andy Sudbrock
 - II. A Success Story35
Cameron W. Barrows
- Moquah Barrens: Pine Barrens Restoration in Chequamegon National Forest (Wisconsin)39
Robin S. Vora
- Beyond Apocalypse: Some Reflections on Native Writers, Modern Literature and Restoration45
C. Christopher Norden

Notes and Abstracts

- Grasslands52
- Woodlands55
- Wetlands60
- Lakes, Rivers and Streams63
- Coastal Communities64
- Other Communities66
- Propagation and Introduction68
- Control of Pest Species70
- General Revegetation and Management73
- Education74

Book Reviews	77
Reclamation	78
Endangered Species	79
Conference Report	80
Planning and Policy	81
Organizations	84
Issues and Perspectives	85